

About the Instructor

Sara is an Emmy nominated, award-winning make-up artist who started in the business as a performer and Opera singer. Makeup found her. Sara has been featured in many prominent magazines for her work in the industry, as well as in Mazel Tov! The Complete Book of Jewish Weddings by Lea Bayers Rapp.

Sara is a huge fan of Gerda Spillmann's Bio-Fond Make-up bases. She has been in the Film and Television industry for over twenty years, and her awards range from Omni Intermedia, TVIA Peer, International Davey award, The Accolades and the American Pixel Academy - Pixie award.

CLASS INFORMATION:

Saturday, July 31, 2010

High Definition Makeup University
Sweet B Studios
4116 Walney Rd.Suite B
Chantilly, VA 20151
703-625-7235
703-625-7235

8 people per class to ensure individual attention to each student.

Class price: $275.00 per person
(all day class)

To pay for your class go to saraseidmanvance.com

Make-Up and Light An Introduction

Presented by Emmy-
Nominated Make-up Artist
Sara Seidman Vance

“This class is important now, more than ever, with the change to High Definition broadcasting and digital filming. Make-up artists can no longer just know make-up. They need to be able to protect their talent and work by having the knowledge that is necessary to be the best at their craft.”

Make-Up and Light – An Introduction

Award winning Make-Up Artist Sara Seidman Vance has developed a lighting class specifically designed with make-up artists in mind.

This class will help you:

- Have a basic understanding of lighting
- Be able to make adjustments in any lighting situation
- Develop a relationship with the Director of Photography (DP) or Lighting Designer
- Understand the relationship between lighting and make-up, and how one effects the other

- Light Objectives.
- Color Mixing.
- Defining Color.
- Hues and Saturation.
- Lighting Equipment.
- Lighting Accessories.
- And much more!